

MONTHLY BULLETIN

February – 2017

O God, our help in ages past,

Our hope for years to come,

Be thou our guard while troubles last,

And our eternal home.

VICAR'S MESSAGE

“Out of the depth I cry to thee, O Lord
(Psalms 130:1-2)

In psalm 130 the psalmist speaks from his heart in the midst of a time of difficulty and agony. All of us will sooner or later face the painful problem of suffering. What will you do if life seems to care you? Have you developed a technique for dealing with failure, disappointment, defeat, disgrace and trouble? What the psalmist did with the problem of suffering.

1. The psalmist gave himself to earnest prayer
(Psalms 130:1-2)

2. Psalmist confessed his sin and trusted God for forgiveness (Psalms 130:3-4)

We need to accept God's forgiveness, love, mercy and Grace.

May the God bless you all?

Yours in His Service

Rev.T.C.Churian.
