VICAR’S MESSAGE

First Thessalonians, Chapter-1

Paul the Apostle in this passage thanks God for the Zeal of the church in Thessalonica for evangelism and their labor of love and steadfastness of hope in Jesus Christ. The Apostle here mentions four salient characteristics of the believers of the Church in Thessalonica.

1. They are an elected people (V: 4)

They very well knew that they were called out to be witnesses in the world. They were chosen people of God and were set apart with the specific purpose of preaching the Gospel to the ends of the world; we need greater fellowship and commitment in order to be his true witnesses in this generation.

2. They were nexemplary people (V: 7)

They were example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. Their life styles were truly worthy of Christ and their faith in God had gone forth everywhere.

3. They were enthusiastic in the work of evangelism (V: 8)

Election involves responsibilities. We have to be Co-workers with God in the discharge of the responsibilities entrusted to us.

4. They were also an expectant people (V: 9-10)

They rejoiced in the favorable response of deliverance from the wrath to come.

Yours in His service

(Sad)

Rev.T.C.Churian.
